

- The saddle must be returned in the same condition it left Tack Hoarders Anonymous. Any damage or excessive wear to the saddle will be charged to the client in the amount that the saddles sale price needs to be lowered.
 - Saddles are loaned without accessories. If girth and stirrup leathers are required, this must be arranged separately.
 - Stirrup leathers can be attached under the flap to not create any rub marks on the flap or covered by tube socks with toe cut off
 - Saddles are not to be left at barns, in unlocked tack rooms or left sitting on the floor/stable doors.
 - The saddle is not to be used excessively for shows, lessons or long trail rides etc. excessive wear fee will be determined and deducted if needed.
- The client is responsible for collection and/or return of the saddle at their expense.
 - In case of shipping the saddle by Mail, Tack Hoarders Anonymous will arrange for the outward shipping at the client's expense and may specify how the saddle is to be returned.
 - Saddles must be insured for the full purchase price during shipping.
- The saddle must be returned to Tack Hoarders Anonymous 8 days from the original shipping/pick up date.
 - THA will be supplied a tracking number at time of shipping. Failure to do so will result in the client being charged the full purchase price of the saddle and the saddle will then become the property of the client.
- The saddle should not be cleaned with anything other than a damp cloth and should NOT be oiled.
- Saddle(s) are FULL responsibility of party named below upon leaving THA and until saddle is returned to Tack Hoarders Anonymous
